

DOGS TO INVAD GARDEN

All Records Broken for Entries at Annual Show.

MANY CHAMPIONS NAMED

Boston Terriers Head the List in Numbers, with Collies Next in Order.

With 2,350 entries and 2,108 dogs on the benches, the annual show of the Westminster Kennel Club will open to-morrow and continue through Thursday. This will be the biggest dog show ever held in this country, while in number of dogs it exceeds by 150 the great show of the English Kennel Club in the Crystal Palace, London.

Of the breeds represented fourteen have more than one hundred entries, the Boston terriers heading the list with 261 and 211 actual dogs, some being entered in more than one class. Of collies there are 193 entries of 111 dogs, with French bulldogs 178 entries and 107 dogs. The other breeds with more than one hundred entries are: Fox terriers, 168; bulldogs, 157; Alsatians, 123; English setters, 120; Pomeranians, 119; pointers, 113; Scotch terriers, 106; bull terriers, 106; and dachshunds, 100.

Among those who will show bloodhounds will be Miss Amy L. Robson, with Ch. Imperial Panther; E. D. Floyd-Carr, with Ch. Blythebrook Punch; and Mrs. L. G. Knox. There will be a fine showing of St. Bernards, among them the White Star Kennels' cracker, led by Ch. White Star Barry and Ch. White Star Girl; L. B. Horsford's Alta Moonlight, and the Herculean Kennels' Alta Marvel, with many fine young ones in the other classes of rough haired dogs. In the smooth variety will be Mrs. William Maurer's lot, headed by Ch. Billy Thunder, and some good ones from the Herculean Kennels and the Elwood Kennels.

The exhibitors of Great Danes include the Vulcan Kennels, with a big string, led by Ch. Voh's Vulcan; Fred Hill, with Ch. Diana and Ch. Diana's Beauty; John Buck, with Ch. Helios von Wurtemberg, while Lutz & Schenck will show the great favorite of the last few shows, Ch. Linda von Ins.

The silky coated, long limbed, powerful jawed Russian wolfhounds will be found in goodly numbers, and the list of owners is many times larger than ever before. Among the exhibitors will be the Boreas Kennels, the Lorraine Kennels, J. Macy Willets, R. C. Thomas, Mrs. P. F. Mathias, Miss Bird, Mrs. Cornelius B. Fish, Miss Julia D. Freuche, Mrs. Horace Morrison, Miss Dazie, E. W. Shoemaker and J. Chaffey Wilson. There will be a number of new dogs as well as the old champions, Polar of Toulou, Zoraida, Nalkis and Valska Ballif.

Pointers will be particularly well represented. George R. French will show Ch. Handsome Sam; Mrs. Edmund Throckmorton, Ch. Beppo B; George Blestein, Ch. Malwood Glory, Ch. Wedding Bells, and Ch. Melkham First Choice, while other exhibitors include S. S. Schuyler, R. E. Westlake, W. L. Armstrong, Ansell H. Ball, Albert C. Goodwin and R. C. English.

In the Irish setter classes there will be many old and new specimens, a large number being benched. Walter McRoberts will show Ch. Holly of Culbertson; the Heir at Law Kennels will have Ch. Heir at Law, and L. and S. A. Contoit, Ch. Fernanagh. There will be a good lot of dogs from the Tison Kennels, Lorraine Kennels, and Dr. J. H. Glass. Cocker spaniels will be many, and among them will be dogs with reputations and newcomers from the kennels of W. T. Payne, George Douglas and C. H. Mason.

One of the most interesting exhibits will be Payne Whitney's sheepdogs of the Marennnes. There will be a table display of China, among them being the Green Acre Kennels' Ch. Chinese Idol, Mrs. M. J. Nathan's Ch. Nub of China, and others from the strings of Mrs. John D. Zerega, Mrs. E. W. Evans, Mrs. F. L. Hutton, Mrs. S. E. Barnes, Mrs. E. Berry Wall, Mrs. Tyler Moore, Miss Maud Lehmann, Miss Hilda Holmes and Miss G. G. Jones.

Bulldogs will be found in abundance, and there will be many newcomers to try conclusions with the old favorites, the exhibitors including Richard Croker, Jr., W. E. Gurnee, Jr., F. V. Alexandre, Thomas Grisdale, W. A. Betts's Ch. Mahomet's Son, Mrs. S. McRoberts' Ch. Thoroughbred, Mrs. Murray's Ch. Thoroughbred, Benson & Porter's Ch. Lord Ethelston, W. C. Codman's Ch. Kenilworth and Mrs. C. M. Hamilton's Ch. Lord Chancellor and Ch. Dundee Pandora. Among the Alsatians are John McLaughlin who show Ch. Harry Jones, Theodore O'Farrell Ch. York the Hammer, Eugene Meyer, Jr., Ch. Biting Bull and the Malvern Kennels' Ch. Lillian Jones.

Bull terriers will attract attention, as usual. Among the dogs will be Albin Northridge's Ch. Patricia, the Glenmore Kennels' Ch. Belle and Ch. Chester II, E. C. Skopfer's Ch. Prospect, with others from the strings of Mrs. S. O. Poll, H. E. Page, Miss Emily Laidin, Philip Boyer, F. L. Fay and Mrs. Johnstone Livingston, Jr.

There will be a host of French bulldogs on hand, including the champions John Newton's Picolet and Pluto, Purdy Brothers' Nellotte Gamin and Santos, C. Pelham Clinton's Ch. Charlemagne and Ch. Minnie, W. A. Quirk's Gurguse, Jr., Mrs. Edward Atkin's Loup and Elsinore Kennels' Blanche.

The Boston terriers appear to be more popular than ever. Mrs. John Newton will show Ch. Elwood of the City, the Wray, Yankee Doodle Darling and Little Lady, the Auburn Kennels, Auburn Happy, and M. W. Robinson, Oarsman and Miss Anthony.

Among the smooth fox terriers will be M. W. Stethelm's Ch. Tallac Dasher, W. E. Bradley's Ch. Warren Distinct and Ch. Warren Remedy, the queen of all dogs, two occasions, A. F. Nelson's Ch. Sabine Result and the Sabine Kennels' Ch. Sabine Result and Ch. Sabine Fernie. Besides these, there is a newcomer in Scarlet Poppy, owned by Mrs. Barclay, sister of the late Charles Barclay.

The Pomeranian classes have filled to the brim and these fluffy little fellows will command much attention. Among the exhibitors will be Mrs. J. B. Taylor, Mrs. G. S. Thomas, Mrs. F. W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. F. T. Clark, Miss Anna Sands, Miss Champion, Miss Jennie M. Woolworth, Miss P. K. McLean, Mrs. A. R. Conkling, Mrs. F. Devos Holder and the Swiss Mountain Kennels.

The usual number of English, Japanese, Pekinese and other toy spaniels will be benched. Among those showing will be Miss Marie Empress, Mrs. A. R. Conkling, Mrs. William Sheppard, Miss F. O. Emmans, Miss May Henderson, Miss Rosalie Stewart, Miss C. C. Whitney, Miss Anna Best, Mrs. E. S. Allard, Mrs. T. G. Sherwood, Mrs. C. E. Darnell, Miss M. A. Stowell, Mrs. M. E. Harley and Mrs. W. H. Ingham.
